Technical Field The present invention relates to an electro-optical device, an electronic apparatus, and a moving object. 2. Related Art In recent years, since a method of combining a light emitting diode (LED) that is a semiconductor light emitting element with a phosphor that emits light by being excited by light from the LED has been used for a light emitting device that is an electro-optical device, the light emission efficiency of the light emitting device has been increased. For example, JP-A-2015-71354 discloses a white light emitting device that is configured so as to include the phosphor that includes an β-sialon phosphor as a phosphor that is excited by blue light emitted from the LED to generate a yellow fluorescence; and a secondary light emitting element that includes a yellow phosphor that is excited by the yellow fluorescence from the phosphor to generate a red fluorescence and a blue fluorescence. For example, when the secondary light emitting element is formed by using a conventional red-light-emitting phosphor, there is a problem in that since the secondary light emitting element has a high intensity of yellow fluorescence, a red-light emission intensity from the white light emitting device is suppressed. In addition, in the case where the secondary light emitting element is formed by using a conventional blue-light-emitting phosphor, since the secondary light emitting element has a high intensity of yellow fluorescence, there is a problem in that the white light emitting device has poor color tone.Q: How do I execute a command to a folder without changing the directory itself?
