A fantasy action game developed by RETRO SYNDICATE, creators of the hit retro action title "Macross Frontier 2". The game can be enjoyed in many ways: single player RPG (Role Playing Game), online multiplayer (LAN and internet), as well as co-op action (local) and adventure (connected to others). • A New Experience with Retro-styled Graphics The game has been developed in full-color and has retro style graphics. However, in order to support higher resolution (such as HDTV), we have developed a new technique, combining a retro-style graphical design and a high definition design. • A Rich Story Outline of Over 25 Hours The game's story is a multi-layered tale that evolves from episode to episode, and experiences a variety of twists and turns. This game is certainly a must-play for the sci-fi and RPG fans. • World of Magic and Science Fiction For those who enjoy the original Macross Frontier, this game features a world that combines science fiction and magic, as well as original characters (with similar personalities to those of Macross Frontier) and original sound track. • A Number of Characters Who Belong to Your Imagination You can build your own story by creating your own party of four characters, each with their own personality and background. • Original Soundtrack A full orchestral soundtrack, "Conception", composed by Kunihiko Ryo. Fans of the original Macross Frontier will be able to enjoy a strong emotional connection to the story and characters as the music is performed and composed in the same style as "Macross Frontier". • A Game With a Unique and Original System As a turn-based tactical RPG, you control your own party of four characters and face out-of-this-world challenges with your team of allies and weapons! • Upcoming Release Date: April 30, 2012 Game Contents: * Episode 1: Fate * Episode 2: Mission * Episode 3: The Ultimate Battle * Episode 4: The Hero * Episode 5: The Ultimate Journey * Episode 6: Friends * Episode 7: Frozen Night * Episode 8: Hope ITEM LIST: 1. Thank you for your interest. We will see you soon!

Sincerely,

// Vice President Fierce and Corbin A: Yes, it's up to the server. The head revision is normally generated by HTML pasting, so I'd guess that at least for this image it gets generated by something else. The option to embed a real-time counter, however, is a client-side concern (depending on the client). I have no problem loading images with sharp corners, so this would point to something the client is doing. Update The only browsers that I can think off that support PNGs natively are Webkit-based ones. The default stylesheet is bound to support rounded corners, so maybe the client didn't apply any. The only case in which this kind of behaviour would occur is when using an old browser (
