A: This feature is not available on Messenger but you can use a workaround to achieve the same. Go to the Dropbox homepage, on the top right corner, you'll see a text link to Share a Dropbox URL. Just send a copy of that link to your friends. If they click on it, their Messenger will open and the link will be sent to them. The US on Friday expelled 35 Russian diplomats over a suspected nerve agent attack in Britain last week. The US on Friday expelled 35 Russian diplomats and closed two Russian compounds in response to the attack last week of a former Russian spy and his daughter in Salisbury. Russia has denied any involvement in the nerve agent attack, but has nonetheless issued a travel warning for the US and 14 other countries. Britain's Labor Party leader, Jeremy Corbyn, demanded London hold an independent inquiry on the "appalling" poisoning of a former Russian spy and his daughter on British soil. "The Russian state should be fully investigated for the attempted murder of a former spy and his daughter on UK soil," Corbyn said in a statement. "The use of a novichok nerve agent on the streets of Salisbury is a brazen and reckless act." "The Government should hold an immediate inquiry into the use of a lethal nerve agent on our streets." Foreign Minister Boris Johnson on Friday said Russia was "deliberately and brazenly" responsible for the attack and offered his support for Prime Minister Theresa May's assertion that Moscow was responsible. Johnson called the attempted murder of the couple a "sickening act of barbarity"
