Photoshop has over 50 years of history. This means that there are thousands of third-party plug-ins (or add-ons) that extend the functionality of Photoshop. Often these are free of charge. Not all of them work with Photoshop Elements. In many cases, there is only a single version for Photoshop and Photoshop Elements. Adobe Photoshop Elements has a basic set of features that does not require a large number of third-party plug-ins. You can install some plug-ins during the installation process. The most important energy and a nice quirkiness to it. You can easily listen to Michelle or Nolan's stuff in the same way. It's just fun to listen to them. "So, I believe we can change the world, one doodle at a time." On 'Art Tourist' Art Tourist was, of course, the most intelligent and thoughtful of all the shows I'd watched that day. It dealt with topics that we could all really relate to in a way that felt really genuine. It's not too preachy. It doesn't feel like they're trying to get you to do something or change your thinking. It's all about perspectives, about finding that good in a world that has a lot of bad. It's about finding those little things that make you smile or come alive. And that doesn't necessarily have to be an actual painting. It could be something as simple as how you washed your hair today. Or it could be more serious. It could be a book you're reading. It could be the time you helped someone that needed it. It could be a conversation you had with a stranger and something they said to you. It could be a smile you saw. Art Tourist I'd recommend to anyone who's in a dark place. I think it's something that it can help you with but, if you're looking for something to make you feel better and make you think or maybe let you know you're not alone, then Art Tourist is definitely something you could look into. "I want people to see the good in the world and I want them to see the bad in the world and I want them to be okay with it." On 'The Project' I was really wary of The Project when it first premiered because I didn't think I liked doing reality TV. It doesn't seem to be the show I liked doing the most. I know I liked it the most when I was doing it, but I didn't particularly like it when I was watching it. But once I got in the studio room and met the people and we got to know each other, I could tell that they were genuinely nice people. A lot of people weren't
