He had a long and illustrious career as a well-known illustrator and poet, and a 2009 exhibition at the University of New Hampshire was named after him. And it gets better: he owned a cat called Twig, who had a hilarious last sentence, "Chill, girl. There's nowhere to go but up." And now, we have a commemorative poster celebrating all that he was and his passion for skateboarding. We think he would have been excited about this one.Q: How to find the Columns in a DataGridView, from a DataTable column

Welcome to Gratuitous Space Battles, where the enemy is always about a click and a half away, and there is no middle ground to be had. Every ship is fully upgradeable and is designed to be driven by a number of skills. A new race of mechanical intelligences called the Swarm have come to Earth and they are intent on making the planet their home. The surface dwellers are cut off from the cosmos by a toxic atmosphere that prevents them from escaping. The Swarm have adapted to living underground and are unyielding in their pursuit of land. But they are a formidable foe and until the land is theirs, the war will continue. Gratuitous Space Battles is made by Starbreeze Studios. Gratuitous Space Battles is a Space 4X strategy game where you build space empires by expanding, colonizing and conquering.Robert E. Luddington Robert Edward Luddington (June 8, 1914 – May 10, 1993) was a politician in Manitoba, Canada. He served in the Legislative Assembly of Manitoba from 1958 to 1960 as a member of the Progressive Conservative Party. Luddington was born in Saint-Zotique, Manitoba, the son of James Luddington and Mary Roberts, and was educated at the University of Manitoba. He worked as an agent and farmer, and was also a federal fisheries inspector. Luddington first ran for the Manitoba legislature in the 1958 election, in the riding of Clearwater. He defeated his Liberal opponent by 1156 votes. The Progressive Conservatives won a majority government in this election, and Luddington was named Deputy Speaker after serving as a backbench supporter of Premier Douglas Campbell's government. He did not run for re-election in the 1959 provincial election. Luddington returned to politics in the 1960 provincial election, this time in St. Vital. He defeated Conservative Hans Pepin by 752 votes. The Progressive Conservatives lost office to the New Democrats in this election, and Luddington lost to Pepin by only 2,067 votes. He did not seek re-election in the 1966 election. During the campaign of the 1958 election, Luddington had renounced communism. This seemed to have contributed to the loss of support he experienced in the legislature. He married Beatrice Janette Boulting of Edmonton in 1945. He died at the age of 79 at the Grace Hospital in Winnipeg. References Category:1914 c9d1549cdd

". T-shirt song in the 1950s. "The Very Last Hit" by the Jon Spencer Blues Explosion"The Very Last Hit" has the songwriting credit from Gary Crockett, an American T-shirt designer who went solo after Southern soul man Jon Spencer got the band off. The song "I Like the Candy Shop" is a T-shirt theme song, and the title is the first four letters from the full lyric. A song called "Death to the Cutie" by The Suburban Youth Brigade, which is a remake and continuation of the Kinks' hit "Death of a Clown", was written as a T-shirt theme song, since the title is the first three letters from the full lyric, and not the first three letters of the first stanza of the lyrics. The song is said to have been a favorite of Johnny Carson's. Johnny's favorite music was R.&B at that time and this was his favorite song at that time. Oliver Stone used to wear a sweater that he ordered off the internet which had a view of a field of flowers on it, he would pull it off and wear it proudly to perform. Our letters page had a similar sweater and our letters page was flooded with letters from members of the public who wanted a picture of the sweater. Oliver Stone went on TV and showed this image on You Tube and since then people have used T-shirts with a view of fields of flowers on them and he has promoted his movie in over 15 different countries all over the world. The favourite song of Sir Jimmy Savile is "Steppin' Out" by the Escorts. There was a group called the Escorts who were a big hit in the UK late sixties, and were managed by Sir Jimmy himself - the TV presenter of Jim'll Fix It and the Scene Programme. This was probably the last great band of the British Invasion period. They did hit albums like Pilbeam, Something's Going On and others. Since becoming a millionaire, Franklin Graham holds the world record for most T-shirts sold to one person - it's a staggering 4.2 million, making him the world's leading T-shirt mogul.A co-religionist of Billy Graham (the son of the originator of the Franklin Graham phenomenon), and now at the helm of the empire of Bill Graham's Association, Franklin Graham signs a very lucrative sponsorship deal with the Southern Baptist Convention to sell the 3.9 million T

In Ark Survival, you have to survive the zombie apocalypse and it's all up to you. You have to use your brain and a lot of skills. build a base and shelter yourself, find food and water. You can gather materials around, quarry, hunt, kill zombies and build traps to protect your base and you can craft up weapons to protect yourself.

But you also have to craft and build a shelter for yourself and a base to protect yourself from the zombies and other players. You can level up and upgrade your skills and your ability to get better. Everytime you spawn in to the map, you will spawn into a random map and the stuff you found and created will be wiped and you will start with nothing. so it's up to you what you'll do now.The story starts after the zombie apocalypse has occurred so you start your journey Survival is not easy in this game. You have to think a lot to survive. You can craft better weapon and also upgrade it. It's all up to you.You can level up your skills and unlock new weapons and armor. There are 3 different classes in Ark survival, That's : Archer, Hunter, and Hunter..Features :- Random map, that's every time you come back to that map, you will always get different stuff and the quests are random.- Big open map for you to build your base. It is a sandbox map and you can build any structure you want. there is no limitation for your creativity.- Pick your weapon of choice before you start the game. You will see weapon stats in the middle of the screen. there is no limit on weapons. You can create your weapon with a blueprint.- As you level up you will get to have different weapon that are more powerful and you can see a percentage that shows how strong the weapon is.- You can mix and match any armor and weapon to create your own style.- Addition to quests, You have to go and get the items and bring them to the map. also you have to be as stealthy as you can to avoid the zombie and other players.-. you can drop weapons and armor you collected. There are enough places for you to build your base and you can also drop on to the map. you can place the buildings anywhere.-. you have to mine and collect as many materials as possible to craft weapons and armor.- Using the alarm system, you can find where the zombies are coming from and you can then get a head start to defeat them and do not get killed by them
