Photo: David Davies/CameraSport Coventry City rescued a point from their opening Sky Bet League One fixture with Brighton & Hove Albion. Their opponents had taken the lead on the stroke of half-time, and Coventry fought back after the break in a hard-fought draw. Florian Kamberi gave Brighton the lead in the 39th minute when he headed home after a corner. Christian Burgess then put the Bees in front from close range in the 72nd minute, but Coventry were back in the game thanks to Andrew Tutte, who struck in the 81st minute. Coventry City manager Tony Mowbray: "We had a bad spell after they scored. We were in trouble but after 20 minutes we told our players to stand up and we got the goal that turned the game in our favour. "It was important that we got that goal and a point now takes us in to the Christmas period unbeaten. If we keep a smile on our face and perform then we will go on and I hope they will be very impressive in the next game."St. Augustine Historical Center St. Augustine Historical Center (1515-17 St. George Street) is a building in St. Augustine, Florida, and is one of the oldest surviving Spanish Colonial buildings in the United States. It was built in 1565 and originally a residence and commercial building for the Spanish mission and Alguersuariense College. History The plaza facing on St. George Street, and the donjon tower of the original fort are outstanding. The Alvarino Barreto House, built in 1832, is located at 211 North Salado Avenue.
